A photograph of a residential area in Malmö, Sweden, during a snowstorm. The scene is dominated by a thick layer of snow covering the ground and rooftops. In the background, a two-story house with white walls and dark window frames is visible. A wooden fence runs across the middle ground, with a small yellow sign attached to it. To the left, a utility box and a street sign are partially visible. The sky is overcast and grey, suggesting a heavy snowfall. The overall atmosphere is quiet and wintry.

Trettondagen—
Vaknade till Snöstorm i Malmö. Hade tänkt köra skidor på morgonen men
det blev inställt!

Födelsedag!

Pulsade ut i Snöstormen för att köpa Tidningen och få lite Rosiga Kinder.

Kom hem med 4 uppsättningar Panelgardiner.

Födelsedagskalas!
Anna roar Faster.

Spättekaka måste man ha på Skånska kalas!

Vi hade med oss vår Julklapp för att få lite hjälp med den.

15 Ljus!
WOW tycker Nils!

Generationslek!
En bygger och en river.

A baby is the central focus, sitting on a dark brown couch. The baby is wearing a bright pink hooded jacket with a white inner lining, a green dress with a ruffled collar, and a blue bib with colorful floral patterns. The baby has rosy cheeks and is looking directly at the camera. Two adults are holding the baby; one hand is visible on the left, wearing a red and white checkered shirt and a black watch, and another hand is on the right, also in a checkered shirt. The background is dark and indistinct.

Allt Roligt har sitt slut!
Dags att klä på sig och åka hem.

A photograph of a dark-colored car completely covered in a thick layer of snow, parked on a snow-covered street. The car's license plate is visible at the bottom center. The background shows residential houses, trees, and a street lamp under an overcast sky.

Skotta fram Bilen!
Sen hem till Ljungabolet och
skotta fram två Hus och en Brevlåda.
Sätta fyr och vänta in Spisvärmern.

JHN 631